CORNHOLE CHALLENGE RETURNS TO MEMPHIS THIS NOVEMBER

JASON MOTTE CONTINUING HIS PURSUIT TO STRIKE OUT CANCER WITH SIGNATURE EVENT

MEMPHIS CORNHOLE CHALLENGE

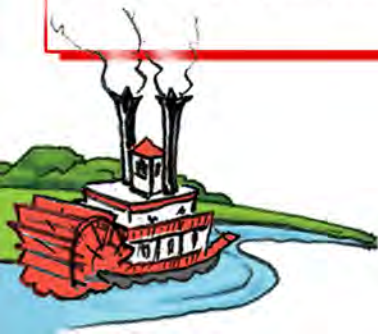

NOVEMBER 18, 2017 - THE COLUMNS AT COMMERCE SQUARE

One year ago, World Series Champion, Jason Motte, decided to bring his signature cornhole event to his hometown in commemoration of his Foundation's five-year anniversary. The event was an overwhelming success that plans are now underway for the Memphis Cornhole Challenge. The Cornhole Challenge was the result of a dream that Jason and his wife, Caitlin, had to take a fun, backyard tailgate game and turn it into a fundraiser. This upcoming event will now be the seventh such event across three different cities, which has resulted in raising over $700,000 for the fight against cancer.

But the fight is not over, and the city of Memphis can get onboard on November 18 at The Columns at Commerce Square. Proceeds from this event will go towards the Motte Foundation's ongoing support of the West Cancer Center and their initiatives.

"WHAT CAN WE DO TO HELP?"

With that one simple question in the fall of 2010, while Caitlin Motte's grandfather, Lynn H. Doyle, was a cancer patient at West Cancer Center, a relentless effort to fight cancer was born. Jason and Caitlin saw a sign during one of their many visits that mentioned the need for blankets and wondered what more they could do to help. That willingness and generosity has led to the formation of the Jason Motte Foundation. From hospital visits to gala events, expos and the selling of his popular KCancer t-shirts, the Foundation continues in their mission to provide comfort and care where there is a need for those affected, both directly and indirectly, by cancers of all kinds. Jason recently sponsored a trip of a lifetime to Spring Training for a group of cancer patients in Denver. The Foundation has now grown by leaps and bounds with awareness nationwide and around the globe, but the battle continues. And so will the Motte's, until the day when we can proudly say that we live in a cancer-free world.

TOGETHER, WE WILL STRIKE OUT CANCER!
