ANNOUNCING A NEW VENUE FOR 12TH ANNUAL ST. LOUIS CORNHOLE CHALLENGE

THE EVENT

ST. LOUIS CORNHOLE CHALLENGE AUGUST 24, 2026 – BUSCH STADIUM

The popular fan-friendly event is back for its 12th year in St. Louis. This year's event, is scheduled for Monday, August 24, 2026 at Busch Stadium.

Retired St. Louis Cardinals closer, Jason Motte and his wife, Caitlin, created this unique fundraising event for baseball fans to come together as "Teammates in the Fight" and support their efforts to Strike Out Cancer. Since the events inception, the Jason Motte Foundation has taken this event to other cities, with almost $2 million being raised to continue the Foundation's mission to "provide comfort and care where there is a need for those affected, either directly or indirectly, by cancers of all kinds."

THE CAUSE

A Small Gesture Makes Great Impact...

During the fall of 2010, Jason Motte and his wife, Caitlin found themselves frequent visitors to the West Cancer Center as Caitlin's grandfather, Lynn H. Doyle, Jr. was being treated for lung cancer. On one such visit they noticed a sign that read "Blankets Needed." Blankets...seemed easy enough, that this is something this couple could provide. But that small act of generosity would blossom into the formation of the Jason Motte Foundation. From events to expos to their popular KCancer t-shirts across Major League Baseball, the Foundation has made great strides in the fight against cancer. The Foundation has funded treatment rooms, lung & skin cancer screening programs, hosted cancer families at Spring Training & Major League ballparks and has been an advocate for initiatives of cancer research of all kinds. The battle continues, and so will the Mottes until the day we can proudly say that we live in a cancer-free world.

TOGETHER, WE WILL STRIKE OUT CANCER
